Youth Advisory Council of Santa Clara County

The Youth Advisory Council (YAC) is a collaboration between the Santa Clara County Juvenile Probation Department and Fresh Lifelines for Youth (FLY) to produce positive system change through the inclusion of youth voice. The YAC provides youth who formerly participated in Juvenile Justice services with a unique opportunity to provide input on current system processes, policies, and practices. Additionally, it allows youth the opportunity to use their stories and experiences to inspire hope and encourage change in the lives of youth who are currently involved in the Juvenile Justice System. An additional objective of the YAC is to enhance the professional development and leadership skills of all of its members.
